Who Am I? 青少年大會信息 Christopher Yuan

“God’s Kindness leads us toward repentance.” Romans 2:4

“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.” Jeremiah 29:11

“Be holy for I am holy.” Leviticus 11:44-45, 1 Peter 1:16

*Who we are (essence) determines how we live (ethics), and how we live determines who we are.

*Being gay is no longer what I’m attracted to, what I desire, or what I do. It’s who I am. This is unbiblical. Sexuality should not be who we are, but how we are.

*We cannot properly understand human sexuality unless we begin with theological anthropology.

*Theological Anthropology

1. Rebukes the arrogant condemners
2. Avoids a common, incorrect diagnosis
3. Answers the born gay question

My response this week is:

- To pray consistently for the gay community in our town to know Christ
- To intentionally reach out to a gay loved one or friend (phone call, email, text, have coffee, share a meal, etc.)
- To fast once this month for our loved ones who are wayward or don’t know Christ
